THE STRAWBURY DUCK

About us

Situated amongst the hills, forests and reservoirs of Entwistle, The Strawbury Duck has long been one of Bolton's landmark pubs. Famous in days gone by for its hospitality and beautiful location it has now been brought back to life as a traditional pub focusing on quality food and great cask ales.

The Strawbury Duck is an Inn for all seasons with cosy fires in the winter and a welcoming Beer garden in the summer. The heart of the Strawbury Duck is its bar with its old beams, an open fire, numerous pictures, comfy chairs & a cosy, welcoming atmosphere.

What's a village pub if it doesn't serve the whole community? That's why children will always be welcome at the Strawbury Duck as well as bikers, walkers, mountain bikers and even dogs (as long as they're well behaved!) At the Strawbury Duck when we say something is local we mean local. Now, obviously we cannot source everything within a 10 mile radius, however our pork is bred by us in a field some 2/3 miles away in Belmont, we sell local cask ale and our cheese board really is a taste of Lancashire!

Take a look at our bedrooms which will provide comfortable and cosy accommodation for you to get away from it all! Book your room today.

Airey's farm has been on the same site since the early 1830's. All of the produce they use is fully traceable from the farm to your plate and is all locally sourced from local farms or their own farm. This means that the animals arrive stress free with not having to travel long distances, this gives the meat a superior quality.

Aireys source rare & traditional breeds of animals, which are more flavoursome than modern day breeds. They are specialists in Lakeland Herdwick sheep. The Herdwick has recently been awarded a PDO (Protected Designation of Origin). This means that for any supplier to sell Herdwick as 'Lakeland', it must have been born, reared & slaughtered in Cumbria, and Aireys are one of the vital links in this chain to give its authenticity.

The beef produce includes Galloway, Highland, Longhorn, Belted Galloway and Aberdeen Angus, to name a few. These are all old Traditional breeds of cattle. Aireys also stock Holker Estates Saltmarsh lamb when in season, (July - December). These come off the local saltmarshes on the peninsular surrounding the Estate.

The pork supply is from our own saddleback pigs in Belmont and also from a local farmer who produces Rare Breeds Saddleback and Gloucestershire Old Spot pigs. Our first pigs came from Spark Bridge in the Lake District. The first batch we bought were twelve week old little weaners, we fattened them up on grass throughout the summer, they had a great life, sunbathing all day, wallowing in the stream in Belmont, rummaging around in the dirt and long lazy sleeps under the trees. When they were old enough (and fat enough) the time came to send the first two to slaughter, this was a day of happiness and sadness, the rest is history.
